Kane and Abel

“The ultimate novel of rivalry – Dan Brown

KANE & ABEL

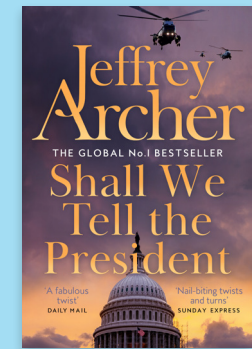

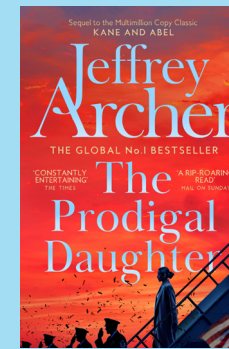

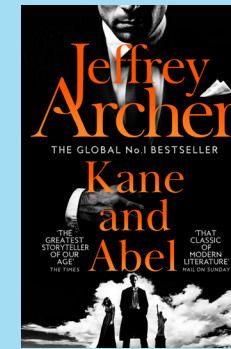

They had only one thing in common . . . William Lowell Kane and Abel Rosnovski, one the son of a Boston millionaire, the other a penniless Polish immigrant – two men born on the same day on opposite sides of the world, their paths destined to cross only once in their ruthless struggle to build a fortune. Kane and Abel is the compelling story, spanning sixty years of two powerful men linked by an all-consuming hatred, brought together by fate to save . . . and finally destroy . . . each other.

THE PRODIGAL DAUGHTER

Hers was the ultimate ambition . . . The titanic battle between two men obsessed with destroying each other follows on to the next generation. Florentyna Rosnovski, Abel’s daughter who is married to Abel’s son, inherits all of her father’s drive, but none of his wealth. A woman gifted with spirit and beauty, but above all with indomitable will, she sets out in pursuit of an ambition that dwarfs both Kane and Abel, as she battles for the highest office in the world.

SHALL WE TELL THE PRESIDENT?

6 days, 13 hours and 37 minutes to go . . . At the end of The Prodigal Daughter, Florentyna Kane is elected President – the first woman President of the United States. At 7.30 one evening the FBI learn of a plot to kill her – the 1572nd such threat that year. At 8.30pm five people know all the details. By 9.30 four of them are dead. Only FBI agent Mark Andrews alone knows when. He also knows that a senator is involved. He has six days to learn where – and how. Six days to prevent the death of the President.
